

NEIL PASRICHA

Happiness Expert, New York Times bestselling author, and TED speaker

CONSISTENTLY RECEIVES THE Highest Overall Speaker Rating

Neil Pasricha shares recent breakthroughs in the study of happiness and inspires audiences to hit their full potential. A Harvard MBA, New York Times - bestselling author, award-winning blogger, and one of the most popular TED speakers in the world, Pasricha is “a piper of happiness” (The Star) who dazzles audiences with ideas and frameworks that launch happiness into the stratosphere.

With infectious enthusiasm, heartfelt authenticity, and a “what’s worked” authority, Pasricha connects with audiences and then challenges them to elevate expectations of themselves and commit to the habit of happiness every day.

Today, Pasricha travels around the world sharing messages on happiness to Fortune 500 companies, schools, and non-profits. In the past few years, he has spoken to over 200,000 people at hundreds of events, making him one of the world’s most sought-after speakers. He has spoken to Royal Families in the Middle East, Ivy League Deans, and CEOs at organizations such as Audi, GE, and Microsoft—all using research and models that enhance individual performance and create a more positive and productive workplace.

His first book, The Book of Awesome, about appreciating small pleasures, is a runaway #1 international bestseller with millions shipped, and his much-anticipated new book, The Happiness Equation: Want Nothing + Do Anything = Have Everything, will publish in spring, 2016.

In dynamic, interactive keynotes, Pasricha delivers a blend of positive psychology trends, strategic frameworks, and contagious passion for workplace happiness.

Pasricha earned his Harvard MBA focusing on Leadership and Organizational Behavior.
